

MISD Parental Consent/Media Release Form

MISD is blessed with wonderful and talented children who make the school what it is. We are proud of our students and want to share photographs of them engaged in classroom work or showcase their artwork with our parents and the community. Throughout the year they may engage in interesting projects or activities that we will capture on film and document. We ask permission to use these photographs and artwork in school brochures, newsletters, and marketing material, to name a few.

By checking a box below, you give MISD authorization to publish your child and his/her artwork as a fitting representation of our school and our students' talent.

If you give your consent, please write your name and your child's name, check off the all or some of the below boxes, and sign the bottom of this form.

If you do not give consent, please write your name and your child's name, check off some or none of the below boxes, and sign the bottom of this form.
